FISHING SCHOONER ELSIE HAS ARRIVED AT HALIFAX

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 19.—Logging 356 miles from her home port, Gloucester, Mass., to Sable Island, off Halifax, in forty-six hours, the trim looking fishing schooner Elsie, defender of the North Atlantic fishermen's trophy, arrived in port today just before dusk.

"It was a pretty good run," said Captain Marty Welch, her skipper, "and the ship behaved nicely."

Tomorrow the vessel will be overhauled and relieved of damage and unnecessary gear in preparation for her first race, Saturday, with the Nova Scotian challenger, Bluenose.

The Bluenose will be taken out for a sail-strengthening spin tomorrow, provided her overhauling has been completed and the weather is favorable. The Elsie is expected to go out of the harbor for a tuning-up trip on Friday.

Captain Welch, who sailed the Gloucester vessel Esperanza to victory in last year's international races, declared last year's victory again this year.

Off Prospect, twenty-five miles east of Halifax, today the Elsie headed smartly into the harbor that was running, snatched her main topmast backstay.

"I thought something would go when I brought her into that sea," remarked Captain Welch, "and it was good that it was nothing worse."

Stayall was doused immediately and the schooner came through without further mishap. Up to the time of the accident had been carrying all sail from the time she left Gloucester, her skipper said.

NEGRO CONFESED MURDER OF MATILDA RUSSO

Mount Holly, N. J., Oct. 19.—Louis Lively, the negro, who is alleged to have confessed that he killed seven year old Matilda Russo at East Montross last June was brought here today from Bridgeton and locked up in the Burlington county jail. He was arrested earlier the day at Vineland after shooting a policeman.

Prosecutor Kelsey said tonight Lively had supplemented his earlier confession with a statement implicating his wife. She took no part in the actual killing, the negro was quoted as having said, but has known since the night of the crime that he shot the little girl.

In his confession today, the police said Lively told them he had returned to the waterfront after wandering through Canada and New England for more than four months, to kill a policeman who had treated him cruelly while arresting him several years ago. He is reported to have said he did not mean to kill the Russo child, but that he became angry when he caught her taking pudding from his kitchen table and struck her with a heavy oak stick. The blow was heavier than he intended, he said. After he found she was dead, he told the authorities, he slashed the body with his pocket knife and buried it in his cellar. He denied having assaulted the child before he shot her.

The condition of Asa Wilson, the policeman shot while taking part in the capture of Lively, was reported tonight to be grave. Physicians said he had but slight chance for recovery.

REV. STEPHENSON TAKES STAND IN HIS OWN DEFENSE

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 19.—The Rev. Edwin R. Stephenson, the Methodist minister who is charged with second degree murder in connection with the killing of Father James E. Coyle, a Catholic priest, took the stand in his own defense late today.

Father Coyle, it has been alleged, was shot by Stephenson because of the latter's belief that his daughter, Ruth, was being wooed away by the Catholic church. On the day of the shooting, the witness said, he believed she had run away but he was unaware that she had married Pedro Gusman, a Catholic.

Describing his visit to Father Coyle, he said:

"I told him my daughter was away from home and would appreciate it if he
